| New Business                       | The Chancellor’s Office requested that Kalāualani resume Hawaiian values and culture. Kalāualani wanted to feature their members who engage in extracurricular activities outside of Kapi‘olani CC and express how they process things with Hawaiian lens. Kapulani introduced her passion for photography and spoke of cultural issues.
Pana = heartbeat, pulse; beat in music, to beat time; celebrated, noted or legendary place.
Homework due at a future meeting in Sept.: 1) what ahupua’a do you live in in Kona (moku = district); 2) the meaning of the name of the ahupua’a; and 3) the wind name or rain name and its’|                                                                                      |                    |          |
