Wo Community Building Award
Diversity and Inclusion
2017 - 2018

Are you encouraging diversity and inclusion on your campus?

Have you initiated an activity, program, event, or other service project in the past 5 years which brings together members from different parts of our varied campus population? Examples of these populations include but are not limited to: legal record, ethnicity, religion, sexual orientation, gender identification, veteran status, etc.

This project may include advances you have made in improving:
- campus communications
- campus collaboration
- campus community
- campus well-being
- campus connection to the community businesses, organizations, or schools

The 2017-2018 Wo Community Building Award for diversity and inclusion recognizes new projects that expand and enrich campus or community relations within the University of Hawai‘i Community Colleges and the larger community.

Faculty, staff, departments, or programs that have introduced such a community building project within the past five years are eligible to apply.

THE AWARD: A grant of up to $500 for future professional development.

WHO MAY APPLY: All faculty (including lecturers), clerical, APT, and custodial staff.

DEADLINE: Friday, January 26, 2018

The Wo Community Building Award is made possible from the Wo Family Endowment and coordinated by the Wo Learning Champions.
