International Education Week

Tues, Nov 13

10:05-12:00 Lama Library Alcove

TOKYO IN US-UN RELATIONS: CONFLICT OR COOPERATION?

Jack Anderson, Diplomat in Residence at the East-West Center is an 18-year veteran of the U.S. Foreign Service. He most recently served as Senior Advisor to the Department of State’s Bureau of International Organization Affairs in Washington, DC. Previously, he was the Foreign Policy Advisor to U.S. Congressman Tim Walz. He also served as Director of the International Narcotics and Law Enforcement section at the U.S. Embassy in Yerevan, Armenia. He has spent the balance of his career in management at U.S. Embassies in Uzbekistan, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Poland, and Trinidad and Tobago. Jack is fluent in Russian, with proficiency in Armenian, Polish, and Swedish. Anderson has a BA from St. Cloud State University in International Relations. He moved from Russian, Soviet Studies and Economics. He also holds a MA in Business Administration from the Carlson School of Management at the University of Minnesota. Currently, he is pursuing another Master’s degree in Political Management from the IBM Center of Washington University and provides the potential of collaborative technologies to influence governance.

11:00-12:00 Oh‘ia Cafeteria

INTERNATIONAL MUSIC CONCERT

MUS206 KCC Synthesizer Ensemble, directed by Professor Arne Andey, will perform both traditional and contemporary music from Korea, China, Japan, Canada, the Philippines, and the United States. Vocalists will sing in Japanese, Chinese, Filipinos, and Korean, accompanied by traditional Japanese koto, accordion, violin, trumpet, flute, clarinet, and percussion. There will also be an original improvisation piece called “Flowers,” which is created in concept by Lia Reyes, current MUS206 student, that the entire musical ensemble will play.

6:00-8:30 INTERNATIONAL FILM SCREENING ‘Oh‘ia 118

“Mount Tsugaru: Ten No Ki” (2009) Japan

In 1907, a group of men climbed an unexplored peak in the last unexplored region of Japan. The storyline of Tsugaru: Ten no Ki that Shigeru Yoshida, the narrator of the mountain was area, is ordered by his military superiors to make the mountain’s first ascent before the gentlemen amateurs of the Japan Alpine Club get there. Nothing less than the Imperial Army’s prestige is at stake. Directed by Daisaku Kimura, this film has won many awards at the 33rd Japan Academy Awards including Best Film, Best Director & Best Supporting. Intro by Kalani Fujiwara.

Thurs, Nov 15

9:00 - 11:30 Oh‘ia Cafeteria

MEMORIAS VIVAS

Join in this century-old tradition of honoring loved ones who have passed, in the form of a Mexican OFRENDA. Learn about the powerful symbols involved with Día de los Muertos / Day of the Dead & share your memories! Feel free to bring photos and stories to honor those who have passed. The ofrenda is open to all. There will be an interactive lesson on how to make the PAPEL PICADO, a decorative craft made out of paper cut into beautiful & elaborate designs from Spanish Language Instructor Anna Sachs.

11:00-11:45 AM Oh‘ia Cafeteria

BRYAN TOLENTINO AND HERB OHTA, JR.

Bryan Tolentino is a self-taught ‘ukulele player who began playing at age of 10. His early influences were the musical groups of the sons of Hawaii and The Sunday Manoa. Bryan’s repertoire is a mixture of Hawaiian, contemporary, and original songs, blending creativity and diversity with the ‘ukulele. International recording artist Herb Ohta, Jr., is considered to be one of today’s most prolific ‘ukulele masters. Influenced by Jazz, R&B, Latin and Brazilian music, he puts his stamp on Hawaiian music by pushing the limits of tone and technique on this beautiful instrument. Song of ‘ukulele legend ‘Ohta-san, he started playing at three. He is considered to be one of today’s most prolific ‘ukulele legends in the world. Bryan is a MUS206 student, that the entire musical ensemble will play.

1:30pm-3:30pm STEM Center, Kokio 202

INTERNATIONAL EXPERIENCES IN STEM

Students in the Science, Technology, Engineering, & Mathematics (STEM) Program will present their recent international experiences in Japan, Liberia, Switzerland and Costa Rica. Students will share how STEM is informed through international collaboration and their own research & cultural experiences, including great photos!

Wed, Nov 14

9:00-9:45 AM Oh‘ia Cafeteria

TAI CHI FOR ARTHRITIS FOR FALL PREVENTION (TCAFP)

In the audience-based program supported by the Centers for Disease Control (CDC) targeting seniors to improve balance. In addition, TCAFP promotes prevention of disabilities and fall prevention. The Hawaii Department of Health (DOH) is a co-sponsor of the TAI CHI FOR ARTHRITIS FOR FALL PREVENTION program of the Hawaii Health Institute, and the DOH promotes the TCAFP classes island wide as part of their fall prevention program. Please come and enjoy TAI CHI FOR ARTHRITIS FOR FALL PREVENTION.

10:30 am - 1:00 pm Oh‘ia Cafeteria

JAPANESE GAMES & ILLUSTRATION CONTEST

Come and learn about the people and culture of Japan through the Illustration Contest, along with a display of manga and anime from Japan. Then take the Kendama Challenge, a game played with a traditional Japanese toy. We hope you will also participate in the fun Japan quiz based upon our display of Japanese culture.

9:00-11:00 PM Oh‘ia Cafeteria

MEMORIAS VIVAS

Japanese 102 students and their class tutors will sing a song entitled Nada So So, accompanied by Iroha Mochida on Sanshin. Then hear modern songs sung by students in Japanese 290. Iroha Mochida will then sing a song entitled Nada So So, accompanied by Iroha Mochida on Sanshin. Then hear modern songs sung by students in Japanese 290. Iroha Mochida will then sing original songs, blending creativity and diversity with the DOH promotes the TCAFP classes island wide as part of their fall prevention program. Please come and enjoy TAI CHI FOR ARTHRITIS FOR FALL PREVENTION.

12:30-1:15 PM Oh‘ia Cafeteria

MODERN AND TRADITIONAL JAPANESE SONGS

Japanese 102 students and their class tutors will sing original songs, blending creativity and diversity with the DOH promotes the TCAFP classes island wide as part of their fall prevention program. Please come and enjoy TAI CHI FOR ARTHRITIS FOR FALL PREVENTION.

1:30pm-3:30pm STEM Center, Kokio 202

INTERNATIONAL EXPERIENCES IN STEM

Students in the Science, Technology, Engineering, & Mathematics (STEM) Program will present their recent international experiences in Japan, Liberia, Switzerland and Costa Rica. Students will share how STEM is informed through international collaboration and their own research & cultural experiences, including great photos!

10:00-10:45 AM Oh‘ia Cafeteria

INTERNATIONAL MUSIC CONCERT

MUS206 KCC Synthesizer Ensemble, directed by Professor Arne Andey, will perform both traditional and contemporary music from Korea, China, Japan, Canada, the Philippines, and the United States. Vocalists will sing in Japanese, Chinese, Filipinos, and Korean, accompanied by traditional Japanese koto, accordion, violin, trumpet, flute, clarinet, and percussion. There will also be an original improvisation piece called “Flowers,” which is created in concept by Lia Reyes, current MUS206 student, that the entire musical ensemble will play.

6:00-8:30 PM INTERNATIONAL FILM SCREENING ‘Oh‘ia 118

“Mount Tsugaru: Ten No Ki” (2009) Japan

In 1907, a group of men climbed an unexplored peak in the last unexplored region of Japan. The storyline of Tsugaru: Ten no Ki that Shigeru Yoshida, the narrator of the mountain was area, is ordered by his military superiors to make the mountain’s first ascent before the gentlemen amateurs of the Japan Alpine Club get there. Nothing less than the Imperial Army’s prestige is at stake. Directed by Daisaku Kimura, this film has won many awards at the 33rd Japan Academy Awards including Best Film, Best Director & Best Supporting. Intro by Kalani Fujiwara.

International Education Week is coordinated by Dr. Carl Hefner

hefner@hawaii.edu

734-9438

Mahalo to the Honda International Center

702-9166